BRING PROOF OF PROFITEERING FOR CIVIC ACTION, DAY URGES

Complainant Declares Wholesalers, Jobbers and Others Working Together

HELD FEDERAL TASK

Mayor Day today invited citizens with definite proof of food prices being raised unduly because of the war situation, to submit complaints and evidence to him.

"If the charges are justified," he promised, "we will take vigorous steps to protect the public."

The mayor made this promise following charges last night of Albert Thornton, secretary of the Riverdale Ratepayers' association, that wholesalers, jobbers and others had co-operated to take "unfair advantage of citizens to charge higher prices because of the declaration of war."

Mayor Day invited Thornton to submit proof of his allegations.

Replying to the association's plea that the city ask Ottawa to take steps to prevent unnecessary boosting of prices, and to restore prices already raised, the mayor said the city several weeks ago asked Ottawa to look into the situation and establish safeguards against exploitation.

The city even now, he said, is acting as a clearing house for complaints from citizens regarding either hoarding or price boosts. These complaints are passed on to the weights and measures board for investigation, he said, adding that there was really little more the city could do.

"There has undoubtedly been some rise in the price of food commodities," he declared, "though during the depression prices were higher than they are now.

Decreases Offset Rises

While certain foods have advanced in price between July 1 and Sept. 29, this advance has largely been offset by a more plentiful supply of vegetables at this season, particularly in regard to Ontario grown potatoes.

This was the result arrived at by Commissioner of Welfare Laver in a report on increased food prices, submitted to the board of control today.

There had been no change in the price of milk or of bread, the report stated. Butter had increased from 23 to 28 cents; stewing beef, from 16 to 19; pork, from 24 to 25; bacon, from 29 to 35; eggs, from 27 to 30; cheese, no change; flour, 59 to 69; rice, no change; onions, a decrease from 4 2-3 cents to 2 cents; potatoes, decreased from 35 to 17 cents, coffee, up from 22 to 24; tea, increased from 39 to 43.

No Profiteering, Say Aldermen

"I don't think there has been any drastic raise in prices," said Ald. Muir, "We shouldn't start to holler yet."

Ald. Davy: "I have found not the slightest evidence of prices being unnecessarily boosted."

Ald. Phillips: "All we can do is draw attention of officials at Ottawa. I know nothing regarding boosted prices."

Ald. Quinn: "So far as I know there has been no profiteering."

Riverdale Ratepayers' association last night, meeting in Leslie Street school, passed a resolution asking the city to appeal to the Dominion government to take action.

Sugar, declared Mr. Thornton, had risen 40 per cent.—from five to seven cents a pound—since war began, and "overcoats that were $25 last year are $35 now. Canned goods are up, although they were all paid for months ago at low prices. Factories are so busy now because retailers have been warned that there'll be a shortage and higher prices. An increase in the price of bread is expected. Hepburn says he's reducing the taxes from 42 to 32 cents on the dollar, but with the new increase in prices our income is down about 50 cents on the dollar purchasing power."

Set Total Rise at 6 p.c.

Cost of living in Ontario has increased about five or six per cent. over last year, a poll of manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers today disclosed. Largest increase has been in the grocery line, with prices up about 10 per cent. on the average. Clothing prices, manufacturers contend, have increased very slightly; coal is up a little, and rents not at all, which brings the level of increase over all lines down to not more than six per cent.

It was stressed by all who were canvassed that this is "purely an estimate," and that if accurate figures were obtainable the figure might be "slightly different." They were unanimous, however, that the increase "is certainly less than 10 per cent." Strong competition has changed the picture, since the last war, and profiteering is almost impossible now, it was stated.

This estimate was given in reply to the charges that "with the new increases in prices our income is down to about 50 cents on the dollar, purchasing power."

"That is utterly ridiculous," commented the sales manager of a Toronto wholesale grocery firm.

Up 10 Per Cent. Over 1938

The cost of groceries in Ontario is approximately 10 per cent. higher than it was at this time last year, Toronto wholesalers agreed today. Three wholesale firms, polled separately, expressed similar opinions.

"Certain items have increased more than 10 per cent. in price, while others have not advanced at all," said the general manager of a leading firm of wholesale grocers. "Canned goods are higher than a year ago, but last year stocks were higher than requirements, and bankers were pressing some canners for their money. They had to sell for what they could get. This year stocks of canned goods are in firmer hands. There is no dumping on the market, but neither is there profiteering. Canners are getting a fair price, which they did not get last year."

He said he was inclined to blame the food control board for the panic buying of sugar, which is continuing despite attempts of reassurance.

"The board stated there was no shortage of sugar, and that supplies on hand in Canada were enough for two weeks," he said. "Immediately the consumer started to wonder about the third week. That announcement in itself was enough to start a panic. As a matter of fact, sugar is entering Canada in ample quantities."

Carload Soon Snapped Up

He pointed out that if every housewife in Toronto bought five pounds more sugar than she required in any one week, the total would amount to 20 carloads.

"A carload that used to last a small branch three days is now bought up as fast as the car can be unloaded," he said. "There is not a shortage of sugar in any district, but the sugar is in fewer hands, so that there is, perhaps, a shortage for certain small individual consumers."

While prices of certain types of breads and pastries have increased slightly, it was stated at the office of Ideal Bakeries today that an increase in the price of a standard loaf of bread is unlikely for some time.

Suits Sold Before War

Representatives of clothing firms state that if there has been an increase in the price of suits or overcoats, as charged by Mr. Thornton, it is entirely due to the action of individual retail stores.

"Clothing manufacturers work six to eight months in advance," it was stated at the office of the Woollen and Knit Goods association, a central bureau for all manufacturers. "Manufactured goods now being sold retail were manufactured before the war, at pre-war prices. They were contracted for at pre-war prices, so that manufacturers are in no way responsibe for any increase in retail prices—if there is an increase."

Manufacturers' agents expressed doubt that clothing prices have increased to any considerable extent. A few small merchants may have boosted prices on some articles, but, generally speaking, competition is keen enough to keep them down, it was stated. Price of woollen goods may increase later, due to causes outside the control of manufacturers, it was added. Canada uses 80,000,000 pounds of wool per annum and produces only 20,000,000, it was stated, so that neither the Canadian government nor the Canadian consumer can control the price.

Increasing prices of butter, eggs, potatoes, cream, etc., are being passed on 100 per cent. to the farmers, stated J. Ross, of the United Farmers' Co-operative.

"Even if anybody wanted to profiteer in those lines, competition is so keen, they couldn't," Mr. Ross said. "As an example, when the price of butter increased 5¾ cents a pound, the farmer was receiving six cents more. Certainly no middleman profiteered."

Referring to charges that holders of butter in storage profited by the increased price, Mr. Ross commented: "They took an awful licking last year." He cited 'a creamery that lost $40,000. "I wonder if they are to be censured for getting some of it back this year," he said.

Have Prosecuted Hoarders

Ottawa, Oct. 11—(CP)—The wartime prices and trade board has not considered fixing the prices of particular commodities, it was said today at the board's office. Complaints of profiteering are being dealt with individually. There have been several prosecutions for food hoarding. It was said the government probably will appoint a fuel administrator.

GLOOM OVER ALL VILLAGE CAST BY CROSSING CRASH

Gardening at Standstill—Neighbors Console Parents of Alderwood Victims

STORIES PATHETIC

By JESSIE MacTAGGART

Work was at a standstill today in the gardening community of Alderwood. Friends and neighbors mourned with the parents and relatives of the two women and seven children whose lives were snuffed out in yesterday's railway crossing accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Tibando, who lost three of their children, have gone with their four remaining children to the home of a married daughter in Toronto. The quiet of the home where usually so much activity centred, seemed to draw the attention of neighbors as an awful reminder of what had happened.

"They were such active children," said Mrs. N. McArthur, a neighbor, who is looking after the farm in the family's absence. "Little Lucy (six years) was so bright. I used to see her every day out hoeing in the garden. She used to say 'I got to help my daddy'."

On the next farm south from Mrs. McArthur lives the Browne family, Gordon Browne, whose wife and little daughter, Dorothy, and whose sister-in-law, Mildred Taylor, were killed, walked up and down the lane beside his home with his hands in his pockets, a lonely figure. Behind his modern bungalow is the home of his parents. They were helping him, he said, in his trouble, but when it was suggested that it must be a comfort to him to have the help of his brothers and father, he answered "Yes, but nothing much helps when the main ones are gone."

"No One to Laugh, Now"

Across the road from Browne's is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Davis, who lost two little girls. Mrs. Davis sat in the kitchen, her three oldest boys, her husband and friends offering her comfort. Her eyes were dry until she mentioned her little girls and then she suddenly broke down and began to cry.

"I can see them every time I close my eyes," she said. "I can see my two wee girls just as they were when they started out to school."

She has eight children the oldest of them being 25. Her two little girls, whom she lost were 10 and 6. There is one younger child, Helen, a baby of five months.

"All my other children are older than my girls were," the mother said, "I have no one now, to laugh and play and romp."

At the funeral home at Islington all bodies still remain. The children are in seven white caskets, Mrs. Browne and her sister in slate gray. There was a steady stream of sympathizers to the funeral home all last evening and today.

Bury One in Dundas

The body of Joyce Boyle will be sent to her grandparents at Dundas today. Her parents have lived in the district only a short time, having come here from Dundas. Mr. Boyle operates a service station.

The funeral of Miss Taylor will be held from Butler's funeral parlors at 10.30 a.m. tomorrow and that of her sister and niece at 3.45 p.m. The funerals go to different cemeteries and the services are being widely spaced so that all the people in this district can attend both funerals and also the Davis funeral at 2.30 p.m.

The bodies of the Davis children were taken to their home later in the day for a funeral from their home at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The Tibando children were taken to the home of their married sister, and will be removed again to St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, Dixie, for 9.30 o'clock requiem mass Friday morning.

R.C.A.F. RECRUITING MAY SOON OPEN UP

Already Examining 100 Specialist Candidates Per Day

Early reopening of recruiting for the R.C.A.F. is seen in the increased activity in the air force recruiting centre in the Coliseum. About 100 applicants for ground jobs are being examined daily. Most candidates are cooks, wireless operators, aircraft mechanics and fitters (aero-engine experts).

Each applicant must have passed his entrance to high school and have two letters of recommendation, one if possible from a recent employer. If he has served previously in any branch of his majesty's forces he should produce his discharge certificate. Production of a birth certificate is a pre-requisite. To assist those financially unable to obtain a birth certificate, the province has taken steps to supply these free of charge if requested by the military.

PROPOSAL TO PROVIDE SPORT GETS IMPETUS

Assistance Already Given by Service League Praised By Major Megaffin

HAMILTON IS HEAD

When executives of the Sports Service league called a meeting in the Royal York last evening to promote sport for the troops in barracks at the Exhibition grounds, they little anticipated that they would meet such a representative group who were "champing on the bit and raring to go".

Major Megaffin, sports director of Military District No. 2, said that the Sports Service league was the only sport organization to come to the help of the soldiers. Sports at the camp yesterday were due entirely to its assistance, he added.

A motion was passed that the president of the S.S.L., Con. Fred Hamilton, represent the league at a meeting of the citizens' committee tonight to explain the complete set-up.

A meeting of the executive will take place in the Royal York on Thursday evening to hear Con. Hamilton's report.

Other officers of the Sports Service league are: Honorary presidents, Col. R. H. Greer, Tom Flanagan, John DeGruchy; first vice-president, John J. Corcoran; second vice-president, Ald. Ernie Bray; third vice-president, Miss Roxy Atkins; secretary, Dr. A. E. Babcock; recording secretary, Miss Peggy Comley.

To prevent further fraud attempts, the postal department will defer payments on money orders payable in Canada through Canadian banks, after endorsement in banks in foreign countries, and subsequent transfer for collection in Canada. Payment in such cases will be made in Ottawa.

LAD ONCE GIVEN HELP NOW ASSISTS OTHERS

Sends $50 Cheque to Casa Loma Committee

"You helped me; now help some other boy," read a note attached to a cheque for $50, received today by W. C. Davidson, chairman of the Casa Loma committee of the Kiwanis club of West Toronto.

The letter described how the club had aided the boy in a time of crisis. Now, a few years later, the boy was working and earning his own money. He said how grateful he was for the assistance, and asked that the $50 be spent on helping another boy in need.

From the proceeds of the Casa Loma enterprise the Kiwanis club of West Toronto has built up a substantial fund through which they have been able to aid hundreds of needy children and young people.

DISCUSS SCHOOL COURSE

The first fall meeting of the Balmy Beach Home and School club was held at the school with Mrs. Lapp, the new president, presiding. Mr. Manning, the principal, spoke to a large gathering of parents on the new report card now in use in the schools. He gave a talk on the new curriculum as it will be applied this year and offered advice on how best the children could be helped at home. An enjoyable social half-hour was spent after the meeting where coffee was poured by Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Forge.

POWER FAILS, EAT BY CANDLE

Scores of residents in the Spadina Rd.-Lowther Ave. area ate by candle-light last night when a burnt out transformer wire left part of the district in darkness. The lights failed shortly after 6 p.m. and remained out until 7 p.m., when an emergency crew repaired the damage.

2 PANTS, 2 BROKEN PANES NO. 2 COURT SAYS 2 MONTHS

"Trooser" Thief Caught by Citizen in Chase, Breaks Windows in Fight

'TWAS ON 'TWOSDAY'

(No. 2 Police Court, at City Hall, Magistrate Gullen.)

"He picked up two pairs of trousers in a store on Queen St. W., and ran out," related P.S. Peter Bell, testifying against Gordon MacDonald, charged with theft. "He was pursued by a citizen, who brought him back after a struggle. He again tried to escape, and broke two panes of glass."

"He is also known as L. Darrock," said Crown Attorney McFadden. "He has a record." "Two months," decided the bench.

Appearing for sentence on a charge of bicycle theft, Charles Chapman, 22, was sentenced to three months definite and three months indefinite.

Pleading guilty to charges of theft of some small rugs and other articles while collecting waste paper, George Quillan was remanded to Oct. 18 for sentence. John Ingleman, who drove the truck in which the articles were taken away, and who admitted selling the articles, was remanded upon conviction to the same date for sentence.

'NOT WANTED IN ARMY'

(No. 1 Police Court, at City Hall, Magistrate Forsyth.)

"I would like a chance," pleaded Roy De Line in No. 1 court after he admitted stealing three dresses from a downtown store.

"What kind of a chance would you suggest," replied Crown Attorney Fred Malone, looking over De Line's record. "You have spent practically all of the last 10 years in jail."

"That is right, but I would like a chance to join the army," said accused.

"They don't want you in the army," asserted Magistrate Forsyth, sending De Line down for four months.

Get Six Months' Term

Convicted of stealing a purse from Jean la Belle, James Smith was given six months in jail.

The girl stated she met Smith on Shuter St. "He asked me to have a glass of beer. On the way he grabbed my purse and ran," she stated.

Smith admitted taking the $6, but contended it was money the girl stole from him.

"Stealing purses from women is a favorite outdoor sport of yours," asserted Crown Attorney Malone, looking over Smith's record.

WOMAN GETS 30 DAYS

(No. 3 Police Court, at City Hall, Magistrate Browne.)

Mrs. Anita Dillabough was sentenced to 30 days in jail on each of two charges of fraud, when she appeared before Magistrate Browne in No. 3 court today. The sentences are to run concurrently.

Donald Lang, investigator for a store, told the court that Mrs. Dillabough purchased furniture valued at $133 and tendered a worthless cheque. He said the furniture was later recovered. Mr. Lang stated the woman also cashed a bad cheque for $10 in the store.

"This woman has quite a record," Crown Counsel Bull observed. "She has been convicted of similar offences twice before and has been given chances, but they didn't seem to do her any good."

"She has four young children, the youngest only eight months old," pleaded Defence Counsel Frank Callaghan.

"If I put her on probation she would probably be on it all her life," replied Magistrate Browne.

BULLET CREASED THIGH

(County Police Court, County Buildings, Magistrate Keith.)

Charged with assaulting a police officer and with vagrancy, Glen Dellabough pleaded not guilty in county police court today.

Evidence of P.C. Carless of Swansea police was that accused was picked up on Armadale Ave. early today as the result of a citizen's complaint. He was being taken in the police car to Keele St. police station for questioning, continued the officer, and the car had stopped in front of the building when suddenly accused knocked Carless on to the sidewalk and ran.

"P.C. Crooks and I both fired warning shots in the air and when he ignored those we each took a shot at his legs," stated Carless, "one of the bullets creased the thigh of his right leg and he stopped with his hands in the air."

Accused offered no defence and was remanded until Friday for sentence.

Joseph Graham was given two months for keeping liquor for sale at his Atlas Ave home, York township. He appeared in county police court. He had pleaded guilty to that charge and a second charge of having liquor illegally. He was remanded for sentence on the second count.

P.C. George McKimmie stated he found 80 quarts of beer at Graham's home.

Appearing for sentence on a charge of common assault, W. Karepinsky was fined $10 and costs or 10 days.

"You can't take the law into your own hands," said his worship.

Addison Anthony, charged with reckless driving, was remanded until Oct. 24. "There are two people still in the hospital," Thomas Horkins, defence counsel, told the court.

Morgan Ritchie, appearing for sentence on charges of having liquor when on the L.C.B. "blacklist" and with being drunk, was given a chance.

Accused stated he was going to a lumber camp and promised he would leave liquor alone.

He was given suspended sentence and placed on probation for 12 months.

TWEEDSMUIR TO HOSPITAL

Ottawa, Oct. 11—(CP)—Governor-General Lord Tweedsmuir will leave for New York on Oct. 19 for special medical treatment, it was announced today at government house. Government house sources indicated no serious concern was felt about Lord Tweedsmuir's health, but that he would undergo "a general medical overhaul."

UNPATRIOTIC REMARK 'CALLS FOR ASSAULT'

Cadi Would Feel Like It Himself—Case Dismissed

Special to The Star

Hamilton, Oct. 11.—Magistrate Burbidge today dismissed a charge of common assault laid against Peter Kubilis by Joseph Povelski.

Peter Kubilis and others testified Povelsyi had berated a recruit because he had joined up and had later said Czecho-Slovakia and Poland would be better off under Russian government."

"I think subversive remarks of that character are sufficient provocation for an assault," the magistrate remarked, "I am sure that if I heard them myself I would feel like committing an assault."

TUMBLERS, BOXERS ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

Evening Entertainment Put on by 15th Battery Association at Armories

At the University Avenue armories the 15th Battery association put on an evening of entertainment for the 15th Active Battery. This was the first time the old and new battery have really got together and a real time was had by everyone.

Under the guidance of Dae Strain, the West End Y.M.C.A. and members co-operated in every way possible to make the evening interesting and enjoyable. Sam Jacks with his tumbling team of boys made a hit. The parallel bar display put on by Dae Strain and his team of Canadian and Ontario champions, past and present, proved especially interesting as this is something the various units are interested in as a means of conditioning their men.

The boxers under the guidance of Brien Leighton put on some real bouts, chief among them was the Carless of West End Y.M.C.A. vs. Grace of Y.M.H.A. feud which ended in a draw. Perhaps the most interesting bout to the new 15th Battery was that put on by two of their own members, Don McMullin vs. Raymond Hoag.

Results are as follows:

Boxing—

130 pounds, Ken Langley, West End Y.M.C.A., won on a foul over W. RECALLS SURRENDER OF 1918 GERMAN NAVY

Copy of Jellicoe Order for Fleet Rendezvous Displayed by The Star

Nearly 21 years ago, the German fleet of 74 ships surrendered to Britain. For the next few days there will be exhibited in the front window of The Star building, 80 King St. W., an original copy of Admiral Jellicoe's naval signal of instructions for the historic event.

The framed document is the property of Augustus Luke Scherio of the Kitchener News Co., through whose courtesy it is being exhibited. Mr. Scherio was then a lieutenant on H.M.S. Vivien, a British destroyer present at the surrender, and he secured the Vivien's copy of the order after it had been read to the ship's officers. It was not until the other day that Mr. Scherio, going through old papers, came across the souvenir.

Jellicoe's order, transmitted from Rosyth, Scotland, to Pozen, Germany, gave the rendezvous position of the two fleets 50 miles from land, and the speed and alignment of the Germans. Their guns were ordered secured, trained fore and aft, but the route to Scapa Flow, the order said, would be given only after "receipt of information as to German minefields in the Heligoland Bight."

While the Germans surrendered on Nov. 21 and were promptly interned, it was not until June, 1919, that their crews scuttled the ships. In 1924 began the gigantic task of raising them for scrap purposes, a task that was not completed until this year. Some of this scrap, it is believed, has gone right back into new British ships, ships that will be on hand, naval men hope, when the German fleet makes its second surrender.

THIRTY DRAW BOWS IN ARCHERY CONTEST

Alfred Long Wins Men's Gold Medal, Phyllis Clayton Takes Prize

The rolling hills near Kleinburg made an ideal setting for more than 30 archers from Hamilton, Brantford and Toronto, who drew bows at the first official field shoot to be held on this side of the line. The shoot was run in accordance with the regulations of the Field Archery association of the United States.

A course of 14 targets comprising animal faces as well as bullseyes was laid out so that each target presented a different problem to the archers. The targets were set at distances of from 20 feet to 80 yards and the archers travelled around in groups of four. In the afternoon a second round was shot and the winner's standing was determined on the combined score for the two rounds, making a regulation field round of 112 arrows.

Alfred Long won the men's gold medal with 138 points, while Phyllis Clayton received a wood carving for highest in her class with 93 points. Group winners receiving awards were Chester Newsome, Brantford; Mrs. Leslie Dunsdon, Brantford; Mr. Cook, Mrs. A. R. B. Knight, Mr. Wyttenbach, Miss Rita Williams, Mrs. Sabiston, Phil Radcliff, A. R. B. Knight, Mrs. R. J. Mitchele, Mrs. Allan Bags, Alex McDonald, all of Toronto.
