

June 1940

oyly perched a sombrero uzzly curls.
 tting drinks all round, and izzio" a rest, the Browns rily on. I truly admired y to work so hard to achieve
 e. Anyone can enjoy them-ng back in a deluxe 1940 ening to the radio and let-expert mechanism take all nocks. But to travel as the ere, and still like it. . . !
 "Browns" have travelled since then. They have ted several points in com-
 of them drove old-time cars erate speed. All of them be having the time of their d all of them sported some reminiscent of cowboy reall the insignificant men swimming about in ten-
 tions; of all the luxou, ed matrons crammed into
 d shirts or riding slacks.
 spurs, fancy vests and all f leathern what-nots, they edly the stuff that cowboy s are made of. For 50 the year these adherents of pede had docilely clothed s in conservative business desmen's smocks, gingham ks or shop girls' trig regi-acks. But for the other two ey went a-stampeding and
 "look the part".

se those of the Browns and are only the grandstand
 rs. But the participants, least, travel by car likewise. hicles are more stylish by etches. We see many coupes swanky ones, but still pass-lone cowboy is at the wheel, not look particularly "wild ly". Not nearly so much so
 "Brown" had, for instance, y he has high-heeled riding but seeing him from the he appears as any sun-
 out-of-doors young fellow His partner is comfortably d behind. . . in the trailer.
 y place to consign a saddle
 The horse seems adequately, riously content in her padded plendent in blanket and sun-How glad we are to hear unny,

Stampede, here we come."

PLAN TO ATTEND...
 PLAN TO ENTER THE

55th ANNUAL
C-A-L-G-A-R-Y
EXHIBITION and
STAMPEDE
JULY 8th to 13th

Bigger
 Better than Ever

Exhibits
 Entertainments
 Fire-Works
 Music-Shows
 Prizes

Opening sharp at 10:00 a.m. Monday, July 8th, the thrilling events of the week get under way with the greatest and most gigantic Stampede Parade of all time—featuring miles of Indians, Old-Timers, Mounted Police, Ranch Outfits, Chuck Wagons, Cowboys and Cow Girls (prizes for cowboy outfits and colorful costumes, etc.). Races start Saturday, July 6th. Cowboy Ball, Friday night. Morning Street displays Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

SPECIAL LOW FARES ON ALL RAILWAY AND BUS LINES

ENTER THE

- CHUCK WAGON RACES
- ROPING CONTESTS
- BUCKING HORSE CHAMPIONSHIPS
- STEER RIDING CONTESTS
- WILD COW MILKING CONTESTS
- OTHER COWBOY SPORTS

WRITE FOR ENTRY FORMS AND PRIZE LIST

CALGARY EXHIBITION & STAMPEDE LTD.
 CALGARY ALBERTA

J. CHAS. YULE, President

E. L. RICHARDSON, General Manager

CHICAGO prices—
 wire, or consign direct to
W. THOMAS
STOCK COMMISSION
 in Stock Yards, CHICAGO
 every Sale a work of "ART"